

Academic Program Approvals AY 2020-21

Prepared by the Office of the Provost

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

Date: June 3, 2021

The following new academic programs were approved by the Office of the Provost during the 2020-21 Academic Year.

College of Arts and Sciences

- Department of Modern Languages and Literatures –BA in Italian Studies
- Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry – BA in Biochemistry

The Graduate School and the College of Arts and Sciences

- BA/MA and BS/MA Dual Degree Programs in International Affairs
- Computer Science
  - The Master of Science in Information Technology now has four tracks: Data Management, Technology Management, Information Technology Security, and Enterprise Networking
  - The Master of Science in Computer Science now has three concentrations: Artificial Intelligence, Cybersecurity, and Computer Systems

The Graduate School and the Stritch School of Medicine (Neiswanger Institute)

- The MA in Theology now has a concentration in Bioethics and Health Policy

Institute of Pastoral Studies

- Graduate Certificate in Christian Spirituality
- Graduate Certificate in Pastoral Leadership
- The Master of Divinity has two new concentrations:
  - Concentration in Chaplaincy
  - Concentration in Spiritual Direction

Parkinson School of Health Sciences and Public Health

BSPH/MPH Dual Degree Program

School of Communication

Minor in Professional Communication

School of Education

Graduate Certificate in Curriculum and Pedagogy in Higher Education