

Curriculum vitae

Alan Raphael

Education: B.A., Haverford College (1966); M.A. & PhD. (History), University of Chicago (1967 & 1972); J.D., Indiana University (Indianapolis 1979).

Bar Admissions: Indiana, 1979 and Illinois, 1981 (both inactive), Seventh Circuit Bar, 1979.

Current employment: Associate Professor, Loyola University Chicago School of Law. Full-time faculty member since 1983; received tenure, 1989. Courses currently taught: Constitutional Law, Criminal Procedure Investigation, Criminal Procedure: Adjudication. New course being developed to be offered in Spring of 2024 or Fall of 2024: Seminar-Race and Criminal Justice. Other courses taught: Corporations, Sales, Comparative Law, Comparative Criminal Procedure, First Amendment Law, Human Rights, Law and International Terrorism, Child Abuse, Criminal Law, Seminar on Criminal Procedure, Criminal Appellate Practicum (representation of convicted persons in appeals and collateral review).

Law school committee assignments and service: Current: Chair of Admissions Committee since 2020; member of Rodin committee.

Past: Law Journal Advisor (1 year), Moot Court Program Director (5 years), Organizer and program chair of faculty presentations under Half-Baked Ideas series and program for visiting judges (10 years); Rome Summer program Director (3 years), Chair of Teaching Committee (10 years), Member of Admissions Committee (10 years), Member of Executive Committee for development of law school strategic plan (2 years), Member of Bar Success Committee (2 years), Member of Curriculum Committee (3 years), Member of Dean's Advisory Committee (10 years)

I attend a great many programs on campus, make 2-3 public presentations and organize panels, on legal subjects each year, advise students regarding law journal and other journals and moot court competitions, and regularly read and comment on drafts of papers written by colleagues.

University Committee Service: Current: None.

Past, member of committee choosing faculty recipients of university summer grants and leaves of absence (6 years), member and chair of University Shared Governance Budget/Audit/Investments Committee (4 years), member of Committee to Review Academic Programs, which evaluated all university academic programs (1 year), member of Faculty Council (2 years).

Publications since 2015

Book, Criminal Procedure: Bail to Jail (Tower Publishing Co. Third Edition 2017).

Articles in American Bar Association Division on Public Education publication, Preview of United States Supreme Court Cases (about half of them with a student co-author). Subjects have included the following: affirmative action in higher education, whether evidence found after an illegal seizure of an individual is admissible if the officer discovers that there is an existing arrest warrant for the person detained, whether a court may consider a juror affidavit that another juror expressed racially biased views during jury deliberations, whether the Constitution permits gender discrimination regarding transmission of citizenship to children born outside of marriage to U.S. citizens living abroad, whether a guilty plea waives a defendant's ability to appeal the unconstitutionality of the statute of conviction, whether the dual sovereignty exception to double jeopardy should be continued, whether a court evaluating a claim of racial discrimination in use of peremptory challenges may consider evidence of the prosecutor's racial discrimination in other cases, whether the Boston Marathon killer should be sentenced to death, whether a state anti-discrimination law may be applied to a website designer who refuses to design websites for same sex couples celebrating their marriage, whether presidential electors are free to vote as they wish despite contrary state laws, the scope of confrontation clause rights after recent Supreme Court decisions, and overviews of Supreme Court decisions in two terms of the Court regarding criminal procedure.

Community Service: Current: None

Past: Elected Village Trustee, Village of Oak Park, Illinois (4 years); member of Solid Water Task Force, Village of Oak Park (2 years); member and Chair, Oak Park Board of Health (6 years); member and at times Acting Chair, Board of Zoning Appeals, Village of Oak Park (14 years); pro bono attorney for appeals and collateral review for indigent persons convicted of serious crimes (filing briefs and arguing cases in the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, the Illinois Supreme Court, the Illinois Appellate Court, and the Circuit Court of Cook County) (30 years); volunteer interpreter and tour guide, at Wright Home and Studio and Unity Temple in Oak Park, IL., Frank Lloyd Home and Studio Foundation and Frank Lloyd Eight Trust (25 years).