Administrative History

The office of the Vice President of Finance was established as the Treasurer's Office in 1870. This title was retained until 1922, when the office became known as the Loyola University Treasurer's Office. From 1948 to 1970 the office was called the University Treasurer, and from 1970 to 1998 it was the office of the Vice President of Finance before changing to the office of the Vice President of Finance and Treasurer. In 2003 the title was again changed to Finance and CFO. In 2007 the office became known as that of the Vice President, CFO and Treasurer.

The office of the Vice President of Finance oversees the offices and departments that deal with the finances of Loyola University Chicago. These departments include Administrative Services, Budget and Financial Analysis, Risk and Debt Management, Controller's Office, and Treasurer's Office.
