

SURVIVING SEXUAL ASSAULT.

Advocacy and Services at Loyola.

HR

IF YOU HAVE BEEN SEXUALLY ASSAULTED, know that it was not your fault. Support is available at Loyola. Whether you were assaulted recently or some time ago, you have many options available to you. When a survivor tells someone about his or her experience, she or he usually chooses to tell a friend first. These tips will help you respond if a friend comes to you.

I'M HERE FOR YOU.

This project was supported by Grant No. 2009-WA-AX-0020 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. ADVOCACY

The Wellness Center offers support and advocacy to students who have experienced sexual assault. Advocates are professional staff and graduate students who have been trained to respond to sexual assault survivors. Free confidential, nonjudgmental services include:

- Referrals to counseling and other supportive services on campus and in the community
- Education about medical options and procedures, including evidence collection and assistance in getting to the hospital, if you choose
- Information about and referrals to legal advocacy
- Assistance in reporting an assault to Campus Safety, if you choose
- Support and advocacy in navigating Loyola's conduct system, if you choose
- Assistance for significant others and friends of sexual assault survivors
- Services available during Wellness Center hours and some evenings and weekends (call for current hours)
