LUC in DC

Program Application

You will need:

- The completed application form
- Your one-page resume
- An official or unofficial transcript
- A short essay, as described below

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

All materials and any questions should be sent to Susan Dimock at sdimock@luc.edu

Appling for: FALL	SPRING	20
Name:			ID#:
Email:			Phone:
Permanent address:
City:		State:	Zip:
Current status: SOPH	JUNIOR	SENIOR	Expected graduation date:
Declared major(s):
Declared minor(s):
GPA:

Name and email of one faculty member who can attest to your academic standing:

How many credit hours have you previously earned with an internship?

What type of internship(s) are you looking for?

A. Have any disciplinary or administrative actions (i.e. violations of University policy, probation, suspension, expulsion) been taken against you by Loyola University Chicago or are any pending?

YES NO

B. Have you ever been convicted of any criminal offense, DUI/DWI, or misdemeanor offense?

YES NO

If you answered "yes" to either A or B on a separate page give the date(s) of and explain the circumstances of the action(s), what you have learned and why this should not disqualify you from the Washington, DC Program. Please note, you can review your own conduct history at https://luc-advocate.symplicity.com.

Short essay - approximately 250-300 words.

Why do you wish to participate in the DC program? Please include a discussion of how the program fits with your academic and career goals, and how your past experiences and academic work have prepared you for Washington.

I hereby certify that I have personally completed this application and that the information is accurate to the best of my belief and knowledge. By submitting this application, I give the Loyola Washington, DC program permission to review my academic and disciplinary records.

Signature: